THE STORY

Every relationship has its own rhythm: part conversation, part comedy, part mystery. Blending soul, R&B, and funk with playful lyrics and infectious grooves, The Rhythm We Make explores that wonderfully imperfect exchange.

Drawing on misunderstandings, recurring arguments, private jokes, and unexpected tenderness, these are songs about listening halfway, admitting mistakes, getting lost in the weeds, and discovering that sometimes a rhythm can reconnect two people when words cannot. Because the music we make together isn't always harmonious. But even when we lose the beat, there's something beautiful about finding it again.

SONGS TO START WITH (click a title to listen)

Love Makes No Sense
When logic fails, love finds a way.

Adventurous Love
Two hearts, no map, endless possibilities.

Weeds in the Strawberries
Love gets messy. Still sweet, still sweet.

The Scaffold of Intimacy
Building closeness, one moment at a time.

The Rhythm We Make
An upbeat celebration of the rhythm two people create together.

ABOUT THE ARTIST

John Gerstner is a songwriter, visual artist, and storyteller exploring the humor, contradictions, and emotional complexity of everyday life. His songs explore love, miscommunication, human nature, and the mysteries of being alive, often with an unexpected twist of phrase. His partner, Shelia, provides both inspiration and a welcome reality check, particularly when the subject turns to love.

Original lyrics and creative direction by John Gerstner, with music and vocals developed using AI-assisted production tools.
